"I want to personally invite you to attend the retreat in your area. With the constant demands of work and busy schedules, we need to make it a high priority to spend quality time together as couples. Here is the perfect setting for you to nurture your relationship with the most important person in your life. That's why I'm providing this opportunity to you on Army time and at the Army's expense. I am encouraging maximum participation through all my commanders." Major General Robert Ostenberg, 63rd RRC Commander
