

Inside

Page 3 — Message from Brig. Gen. Hunt

Page 4 — Command Sgt. Maj. Belcher bids farewell

Page 6-7 — Civilian executives watch how Reservists train

Page 8-11 — HHC soldiers mix exercise with a break from normal training

Page 12-15 — Division marks change of command

Page 16 — Division sergeant part of 'heroes' profile

Page 17 — Association of the Century has its 23rd meeting

Page 18 — Sgt. 1st Class Rouse named tops in her field

Page 19 — Families of 5th Brigade feel reality of deployment

Page 18 — The Division's annual color guard competition is tough, again

Page 27— The Division helps GE celebrate 50 years in Louisville.

The News of the Century is published semi-annually in the interest of all personnel of the 100th Division (IT). It is an unofficial publication authorized under the provisions of AR 360-81. It is written, edited and published by the public affairs office, 100th Division, 3600 Century Division Way, Louisville, Ky., 40205-5000; telephone (502)454-2918. Printing is by offset press with a print run of 3,000. Editorial news and opinions expressed in the publication are not necessarily those of the Department of Defense, Department of the Army, of the HQ of the 100th Division (IT). Contributions of material are welcome and should be addressed to the Public Affairs Office. The editor reserves the right to edit submitted copy for clarity and propriety. With the exception of copyrighted or syndicated materials and photographs (other than US Army), all materials may be reprinted without express written permission if appropriate credit is given the author or contributor. The News of the Century also utilizes AFIS and AR News material.

Brig. Gen. Gregory Hunt..... Commander

Maj. Jerry Traylor..... Public Affairs Officer

Sgt. 1st Class Carver Ealy..... Public Affairs Chief

Contributors and public affairs members:

Sgt. First Class Johannes W. VanDonsel

Sgt. Joe St. Peter