

YOU CAN BE AN INSTRUCTOR

Every leader has it. Confidence! The United States Army Reserve will teach you to master it. We, the 10th Bn, take the classroom to the real world, where you will acquire leadership skills, like management, teamwork and split second decision-making. These are the job skills businesses and companies are looking for. The United States Army Reserve is the credential that tells employers you have what it takes to complete the mission.

QUALIFICATIONS:

To be an instructor you must be a 91B in the grade of E5, and be national registry EMT-B qualified. We will provide all the additional training to become instructor qualified.

NOT an E-5 yet? We will wait! Fill out an application and we will keep in touch.
